Saint Augustine's Weekly Parish Magazine

Issue 13: Sunday 4 December 2022

Second Sunday of Advent

'The one who follows me will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire.'

The First Reading is from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah 11:1-10. To help us prepare for the coming of Christ at Christmas, the Church recalls the prophecies of the great Isaiah on each of the four Sundays of Advent. To encourage the Chosen People who, because of the bad example of their worldly leaders, were wavering in their loyalty to Yahweh their true God, the prophet reminds them of him who is to come.

This was 700 years before Christ came, but it was a reminder that God, who had called Abraham and had made him the father and founder of the Chosen People some thousand years previously, had not forgotten his promises. He would fulfill his word. He would one day send them a ruler, a king, who would rule and judge with justice because he would have the true spirit of the Lord. He who was to come would set up a kingdom of peace, not only for the Chosen People but for all men. The kingdom he was to establish would be for Jew and Gentile.

The Second Reading is from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans 15:4-9. St. Paul is telling newly converted Christians, converted Christians of Rome, many of whom were Jews, that the sacred Scriptures of the Old Testament are still a source of instruction, encouragement, and hope. The call of Abraham and the promises made to him, and to his descendants, were fulfilled in the coming of Christ. Christ was the glory of the Chosen People—the fruit of centuries of preparation and expectation—but he brought the knowledge and blessings of the true God to the Gentile pagans also. Henceforth, all men are brothers of Christ.

Whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction. Add to this what has been written concerning Christ's coming among us, with his teaching and promises, and we Christians surely have an inexhaustible source of encouragement and hope. To help us prepare ourselves to welcome Christ at Christmas, the Church brings before our minds sections of the Old and New Testaments, which should inspire us with new faith, hope and charity. Faith in God, who always fulfills his promises, hope for our eventual salvation, and charity, or love for God, who has done, and is still doing. such wonderful things for us unworthy men. This charity and love of God must spill over on our neighbor, if it is sincere, for as St. John tells us, the man who says he loves God and yet hates his neighbor is a liar (2 Jn. 4:20).

The Gospel is from the Gospel of Matthew 3:1-12, an angel announced to Zechariah, a priest of the temple, that he would have a son (even though his wife Elizabeth was barren and advanced in years). This son was destined to be the Precursor who would announce the proximate arrival of the long-expected Messiah. John, the name given him by the angel even before his conception, spent his youth and early manhood as a hermit in the desert of Judea, preparing himself for his exalted office. When God revealed to him that the Messiah was soon to begin his public life, John set out for the bank of the Jordan, where he began to preach repentance, in order to prepare the people for "him who was to come."

In this holy season of Advent, as we prepare to welcome Christ at Christmas. John the Baptist has words of advice and warnings for each one of us. He advises us to "prepare the way of the Lord," by true repentance of our past sins and a firm resolution to straighten "the ways of the Lord," that is, not to deviate from the true Christian way of life in the future.

— Excerpted from The Sunday Readings by Fr. Kevin O'Sullivan, O.F.M.

A Season of Giving

Receiving Holy Communion

Please leave your pew and enter the central aisle in two lines, and then fill the rails on each side (starting from the pillar sides). You are invited to step forward and receive Holy Communion kneeling or standing. At the same time, a second line should form behind those at the rails. Once you have received Holy Communion you are asked to step-out so that the other line may fill the space. Please ensure we fill up the entire row patience during these changes. Fr. Kane

Pastoral Care of the Sick & Housebound

If you or a loved one, neighbour or friend would like a home visit from Fr. Kane please complete and return the following form to the Parish House. Therefore, to help pay for this support, a secure box has now been mounted on the pillar nearest St. Anthony's statue specifically for donations for this purpose. CHRISTMAS TOY APPEAL 2022

Reaching out to communities in Coatbridge and Airdrie

CAN YOU BRING THE JOY OF CHRISTMAS TO A CHILD IN NEED?

St Augustine's Christmas Toy Appeal was set up to supply toys to those who required support. Last year over 6,000 toys were given out to families in Coatbridge and Airdrie for children who would otherwise not have experienced the wonder of Christmas. The need for toys this Christmas is greater than ever due to the steep rise in energy and living costs. This year, we anticipate a big increase in the number of families requesting help.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

We are needing donations of new toys for all ages up to 18. New unwrapped toys, gift cards or donations can be brought to the church or parish house.

From 1st December you can hand in any donations to the Parish Centre. Opening times are 11.00am – 4.00pm 7 days a week.

We also accept gift vouchers which can be used for the older age group or you can make a donation to www.saintaugustines.org.uk/outreach

Cheques can also be made to Saint Augustine's Outreach.

IF YOU NEED HELP

If you need help or require further information, please e-mail: prossi@saintaugustines.org.uk

Or get in touch with the social work department or your child's school and ask them to contact us.

Sacrament of the Sick / Hospital Visitations

Those who require the Sacrament of the Sick at home should contact the Chapel House to arrange for a visit from Fr. Kane. This should ordinarily be arranged prior to any prolonged hospital visit. In cases of emergency where you or a family member require the pastoral assistance of the Chaplain, please request this from the hospital nursing staff. Please note that even during this time of pandemic individuals have a right to be seen by a Minister of Religion, even if they are in COVID-19 isolation. The family should make this request clearly to nursing staff.

Catholic Teacher Approval

Those wishing to teach in the Catholic sector are reminded that it is first necessary to obtain approval from your parish priest to show that you accept and live the Catholic faith. For those living within the parish of St. Augustine's this means approval from Fr. Kane. This applies to those about to enrol for the teaching course, those starting-out as probationary teachers, and all those applying for new posts (promoted or otherwise) within a Catholic school. Please contact Fr. Kane if you have any questions about this process.
