Good Shepherd Sunday

'I am the gate of the sheepfold'

The First Reading is taken from the Acts of the Apostles 2:14, 36-41 and if taken together with that of the following Sunday provides an alternative theme in exploring the preaching of the early Church in the persons of Paul and Barnabas. The mission first to the Jews is now to be placed second to the mission to the Gentiles,—a theme which the reading for next Sunday also explores with the warning of the preachers that those who follow the Lord will necessarily have to endure trial and sufferings. —A Celebrants Guide to the New Sacramentary - A Cycle by Kevin W. Irwin

The Second Reading is from the First Letter of Peter 2:20-25. In these verses today, St. Peter is giving advice to Christians who were slaves. He tells them to be submissive to their masters with all respect.

ST. PATRICK'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY MISSION APPEAL

29TH/30TH APRIL 2023

The Kiltegan Fathers are organizing a mission appeal in our parish on Saturday 29th April and Sunday 30th April. This appeal aims to raise awareness and support for the Kiltegan Fathers' missionary work in various parts of the world. During this appeal, members of the Kiltegan Fathers will share their experiences and stories about the challenges they face and the impact of their work. They will also highlight the various projects they are involved in, including providing education, healthcare, and pastoral care to communities in need. This mission appeal provides an opportunity for members of our parish to learn about the Kiltegan Fathers' vital work and contribute to it in whatever way possible through a special second collection.

Message from Priests for Scotland

One of the most memorable moments of the pontificate, of Pope Francis' visit to the United States of America back in 2015. On the 24th of September, Francis became the first pope to address a joint session of Congress. His speech that day touched on some of the Keystone events in the history of America its civil war, the emergence of the civil rights movement, and the country's emergence as a global superpower.

The Pope insisted that for so many Americans, it means a place of dreams. Dreams which lead to action, to participation, to commitment, to freedom. Dreams which still awaken what is deepest and truest in our lives. Francis went on to speak of four Americans' dreams that contributed so much to the character of that country. Abraham Lincoln with his dream of liberty. Martin Luther King and his dream of racial harmony. Dorothy Day with her dream of social justice. Finally, Thomas Merton with his dream for a spirituality in tune with God's presence in our world.

In our times we have, of course, our dreamers. People who inspire us, people whose vision speaks to us, people who, despite the difficulties of the present movement, inspire us to believe in the possibility of a brighter and fairer future for the human family.

For me, Pope Francis is certainly one of those people.

But what does God dream for us? For you? For me? What does he dream for our world? What does he dream for our lives, for the lives of our communities? For Pope Francis, the call to priesthood is essentially a call to make God's dreams come true. By the celebration of the sacraments, by our commitment to the teaching of the church, by our care for the poor, our love for the Gospel of life. Priests are called to witness to the truth that the one family of humanity is not a fanciful dream but very purposefully which God has created us as priests. We are called or chosen to recognise, to nurture, to sustain the divine spark that's found in the heart of every human being.

The New Year is always a time for dreams. For some, it may be a time to discard old and tired dreams. For others, it is a time to embrace new dreams, new possibilities, and new hopes. What does God dream for your life? Do you dream of being part of God's plan for the world? Can you dream of service in the priesthood?

Today and every day we pray that amid the dramatic events of our time, God's people may still hear His call and respond to it with love, with generosity, and faith. May the lights of the Holy Spirit help all of us so that all of us can find our proper place in God's dream for our world.

- Bishop John Keenan, Bishop of Paisley
Priests for Scotland

Priesthood

When people pray for vocations they are often hoping that someone else will answer the call. What about you? Have you considered that you may have a vocation to the diocesan priesthood?

- Is prayer and worship an important and regular part of your life?
- Would you like to express your love of God through a life of service to His people?
- Have you found yourself thinking of becoming a priest?
- If you can answer "YES" to these questions then why not explore further?

Speak to your Parish Priest or contact the Vocations Director for the Diocese of Motherwell, Fr. Charles O'Farrell: frofarrell@rcdom.org.uk

May Devotions

Thursday Evenings

7.00pm

Holy Rosary & Benediction

In May of 2002 Pope John Paul II said, "Today we begin the month dedicated to Our Lady a favourite of popular devotion. In accord with a long-standing tradition of devotion, parishes and families continue to make the month of May a 'Marian' month, celebrating it with many devout liturgical, catechetical and pastoral initiatives!" Join us in continuing this devotion.

If you would like to support the parish outreach work, you can do so by leaving your donation in the special boxes in the entrance porch after each weekend Mass. Listed below are some of the initiatives, with information on how to access support and how to help. All our charitable initiatives operate under the umbrella project called St Augustine's Outreach.

Sacrament of the Sick / Hospital Visitations

Those who require the Sacrament of the Sick at home should contact the Chapel House to arrange for a visit from Fr. Kane. This should ordinarily be arranged prior to any prolonged hospital visit. In cases of emergency where you or a family member require the pastoral assistance of the Chaplain, please request this from the hospital nursing staff. Please note that even during this time of pandemic individuals have a right to be seen by a Minister of Religion, even if they are in COVID-19 isolation. The family should make this request clearly to nursing staff.

Catholic Teacher Approval

Those wishing to teach in the Catholic sector are reminded that it is first necessary to obtain approval from your parish priest to show that you accept and live the Catholic faith. For those living within the parish of St. Augustine's this means approval from Fr. Kane. This applies to those about to enrol for the teaching course, those starting out as probationary teachers, and all those applying for new posts (promoted or otherwise) within a Catholic school. Please contact Fr. Kane if you have any questions about this process.
