Entering the doorway of faith!

If you or someone you know is interested in joining the family of the Catholic Church, come along to our parish RCIA group which starts this October. More details on page 4.

TWENTY FIFTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Why be envious because I am generous?

Sunday Reflection

The First Reading is taken from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah 55:6-9. In this text the prophet urges the Chosen People to seek Yahweh, to come close to Him in friendship. To do this the sinner must abandon his evil ways. He need not fear: Yahweh is "rich in forgiving," He will forgive all sins of a repentant sinner. Though He is infinite and transcendent, yet He can and does come close to and is a true friend of all who seek Him. He is a personal God, not an abstract idea.

The Second Reading is from the Letter of St. Paul to the Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a. St. Paul wrote the letter from a prison cell in Rome or possibly Ephesus. It is a friendly letter, giving some news of his work to the converts in Philippi, warning them against certain enemies of the faith and exhorting them to remain humble.

The Gospel is from St. Matthew 20:1-16a. The call to the vineyard (to the Church), through God's gift of faith and the sacrament of baptism, is a gift for which we can never sufficiently thank God. If we remain in the vineyard and labour honestly, that is, if we cooperate with the actual graces God is continually giving us, we are assured of reaching heaven when our earthly days are ended. The work we have to do in God's vineyard is the fulfilling of the duties of our state in life. By carrying out these duties faithfully and honestly, we are doing the will of God and earning heaven. The greater part of our day and indeed of our life, will be taken up with tasks of themselves worldly, but these tasks when done in the state of grace and with the intention of honouring God, have a supernatural value. For this we have to thank God for His goodness and generosity.

He could have made the attainment of heaven so much more difficult. He could have demanded extraordinary mortifications and renunciations and the reward (heaven) would still be exceedingly great. Instead, He allows us to live our everyday life, to enjoy the love and friendship of our family and friends, to satisfy the natural desires of our bodies, within the commandments, and yet to merit a supernatural reward while so doing. As He tells us through St. Paul: "whether you eat or drink or whatever else you do, do all to the glory of God (1 Cor. 10 : 31)."

Looking back on our past life, how many years have we really given to God since we came to the use of reason? Those school years, the time spent learning a trade or profession, the weeks, months, years working in an office or factory or farm, the hours among the pots and pans in the kitchen — have we earned some credit in heaven for all of this, or is it all crossed off our pay sheet through lack of right intention or through sin?

If so, those years are lost to us. We were "idle" all that time. Today's parable, however, should give us new hope and courage. It may be the sixth or the ninth or even the eleventh hour of our life but we can still earn heaven if we listen to God's call and set to work diligently in His vineyard. If we put our conscience right with God today and resolve to be loyal to Him from now on, He will be as generous to us, as the parable promises. —Excerpted from The Sunday Readings by Fr. Kevin O'Sullivan, O.F.M.

Curious to learn more about what Catholics believe? Do you know someone who is interested in our faith?

Our RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) programme starts October. We will have a Come and See evening on Thursday, 5th October at 6.30pm in the Parish House.

We currently have 5 candidates and more is always welcome. The group will meet on Thursday evenings at 7pm in the Parish House (excluding school holidays) Meetings start Thursday, 12th October at 7pm.

Organ Renovation

The parish is looking to kick start a programme of renovations very soon in our church. This will begin with looking at replacing our current organ with a digital organ and opening up the organ loft space. You will notice from this weekend that we have a different organ with us on trial, from England, which is presently located at the front of the church. This is the organ we are considering for St Augustine's. Obviously this will require a programme of fundraising. More details to follow next weekend.

Enrolment Mass | 1st October 2023

All children who are to receive a Sacrament this academic year are asked to attend an Enrolment Mass on Sunday, 1st October at 10am in Saint Augustine's Church. This is for all children in Primary 3, 4 and 7. Children are asked to attend with their families.

Sacrament Enrolment Forms

Parents are again reminded to pick-up and complete the green Sacrament Enrolment Form from the church porch. This should be returned to the Parish Office (not the school) by Friday 29th September at the very latest. Please include a copy of the baptism certificate only if your child's baptism took place in a church other than St Augustine's. Please note that 29th September will be the final day to enrol children for a sacrament this year.

Sacrament Meeting

Many thanks to all parents who attended the Sacrament meetings a few weeks ago. If you were unable to attend the meeting please email the Parish office and we will send you the information you missed:
office@saintaugustines.org.uk

Ignite Club

On the last page of the enrolment form, you will have received a list of dates for your child's Ignite Club. It is vital that children attend these sessions to support their understanding of the Sacrament. This is in addition to the classroom workbook they will complete closer to receiving the Sacrament. Please take note of all relevant dates for your child(ren). These start on 8th October.

Sacrament of the Sick / Hospital Visitations

Those who require the Sacrament of the Sick at home should contact the Chapel House to arrange for a visit from Fr. Kane. This should ordinarily be arranged prior to any prolonged hospital visit. In cases of emergency where you or a family member require the pastoral assistance of the Chaplain, please request this from the hospital nursing staff. Please note that even during this time of pandemic individuals have a right to be seen by a Minister of Religion, even if they are in COVID-19 isolation. The family should make this request clearly to nursing staff.

Catholic Teacher Approval

Those wishing to teach in the Catholic sector are reminded that it is first necessary to obtain approval from your parish priest to show that you accept and live the Catholic faith. For those living within the parish of St. Augustine's this means approval from Fr. Kane. This applies to those about to enrol for the teaching course, those starting out as probationary teachers, and all those applying for new posts (promoted or otherwise) within a Catholic school. Please contact Fr. Kane if you have any questions about this process.
