TWENTY EIGHTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

READING REFLECTIONS

The Gospel is from St. Mark, 10:17-30. By coming to Jesus with his problem this man has done all Christians a good turn. We have learned from Christ's answer that over-attachment to worldly goods is one of the big obstacles to entering heaven. The man in this story was a good-living man, he kept all the commandments from his youth upward and he had an interest in eternal life, while many of his compatriots of that day had not. Reading this man's heart like an open book, Christ saw that not only was he fit for eternal life but that he was one who could have a very high place in heaven if he would leave everything and become a close follower of his. Not only would he become a saint, but he would lead many to sanctity.

The price to pay for this privilege, however, seemed too high to this "good man." "He had great possessions" and he was too attached to them so he could not accept Christ's offer, "his countenance fell and he went away sorrowful." Although his case was exceptional, Christ saw in him the makings of a saint and he asked him to make an exceptional sacrifice, one which he did not and does not ask of all his followers; his remark to the disciples later: "how hard it will be for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God" holds for all time and for all mankind.

This statement of Christ, however, does not mean that a follower may not possess any of this world's goods. He may possess and use those goods, but what he must not do is to allow them to take such a hold on him that he has no time for acquiring everlasting goods—the Christian virtues. Unfortunately, there are Christians whose whole purpose in this life is the accumulation of worldly goods. Concentration on such accumulation is wrong, but in many cases the methods of acquisition are unjust: defrauding laborers of their just wages; overcharging customers; cheating in business deals; giving false measures and many other devices which produce unearned wealth.

All this is far from Christian justice, and those who have let such sinful greed to regulate their lives are certainly not on the road to heaven. There are other sins, of course, which can keep us from heaven, but of all the sins a man can commit this irrational greed for the wealth of this world seems the most unreasonable of them all. How utterly inane and foolish to have spent a lifetime collecting something from which we shall soon be parted forever! The rich man's bank-book and his gilt-edged shares will be not only valueless in the after-life but they, if unjustly acquired, will be witnesses for the prosecution at the judgment on which one's eternal future depends. While most of us are not guilty of such excessive greed for wealth, we all do need to examine our consciences as to how we acquire and use the limited wealth we have.

While most of us are not guilty of such excessive greed for wealth, we all do need to examine our consciences as to how we acquire and use the limited wealth we have. There are very rich men who have acquired their wealth honestly and justly and who spend much of their wealth on charitable causes.

Their wealth will not hinder them from reaching heaven. On the other hand, there are many in the middle and lower income-bracket who may be offending against justice through the means they use to acquire what they have, and in the little helps which they refuse to a needy neighbor. We may not be able to found a hospital for the poor, or pay an annuity to support the family of a disabled fellow workman, but we are not excused from bringing a little gift to our neighbors who are in hospital, or from supplying even part of a meal for the dependants of the injured workman.

Remember that Christ praised the widow who put a mite (a cent) into the collection-box for the poor in the temple area, and he also said that a cup of cold water given in his name would not go without reward. We need not be rich in order to be charitable; often our own exaggerated sense of our poverty can make us hard-hearted and mean toward our fellowmen who look to us for help. The true Christian, whose principal purpose in life is to serve God, will not overburden himself with unnecessary pieces of luggage; instead he will travel light and be ever ready to help others also to carry their burdens.

CATHOLIC NEWS

SCOTLAND

SCOTTISH CATHOLIC PARLIAMENTARY OFFICE RELEASE STATEMENT ON THE LATEST FROM WESTMINSTER BILL ON ASSISTED SUICIDE

Kim Leadbeater MP has announced her intention to introduce a bill on assisted suicide in the UK Parliament. The proposal would allow doctors to provide patients with a lethal cocktail of drugs to end their lives. Whilst the basic principle is the same, it is important to note that this bill is distinct from the Assisted Dying for Terminally Ill Adults (Scotland) Bill in the Scottish Parliament.

I am immensely grateful to all of you who have already contacted MSPs about the Scottish proposal; this engagement has been critical in making sure MSPs are informed of key concerns as they consider the Bill.

We must now, however, focus our efforts on the UK Parliament, especially as MPs there will vote on assisted suicide before MSPs in Holyrood, and the outcome of the vote in Westminster is likely to have a significant influence on Scotland. The Westminster vote is expected sometime in November.

It is vital that you contact your MP as soon as possible and tell them what you think of the proposal and let them know about any concerns that you have.

The more people who contact MPs with concerns, the more likely they are to vote against this dangerous proposal and focus on care, rather than killing, for those at the end of life.

Please pray for the terminally ill, and also their families and carers, that they will feel the comforting presence of God and receive the care and support they need and deserve.

And pray for our politicians across the UK, that they will recognise the inherent dignity and worth of every human being, and that they will work to improve how we care for the most vulnerable in our society, including those at the end of life.

It is vital we do all we can to prevent a Private Members' Bill on assisted suicide being rushed forward at this time before hundreds of new MPs have had a chance to properly hear the arguments against legalisation and about the problems that have arisen in other countries where it is legal.

It's now crucial that all MPs and the Government urgently see that there is a large number of voters in each constituency who don't want an extreme change to our laws that would see the ending of many lives through assisted suicide.

POPE FRANCIS ANNOUNCES CONSISTORY FOR CREATION OF 21 NEW CARDINALS

Pope Francis announces a consistory for the creation of 21 new Cardinals from around the world to be held in the Vatican on 8 December 2024.

Pope Francis announced after his Sunday Angelus that he would hold a Consistory for the creation of new Cardinals on 8 December 2024, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, in the Vatican.

The Consistory, set to take place with representatives from all over the world, will fall before the opening of the 2025 Jubilee of Hope and after the conclusion of the Second Session of the Synod on Synodality in the Vatican. Pope Francis' most recent consistory to create new Cardinals had taken place ahead of the First Session of the Synod on Synodality on 30 September 2023.

The Holy Father pointed out that the Cardinal-elects hail from around the world.

"Their origins," he said, "expresses the universality of the Church, which continues to proclaim God's merciful love to all people on earth. Their inclusion in the Diocese of Rome also manifests the inseparable bond between the See of Peter and the particular Churches spread throughout the world."

Moreover, he asked the faithful to pray for the future Cardinals.

"Let's pray for the new Cardinals, that by confirming their adherence to Christ, the merciful and faithful High Priest, they may help me in my ministry as Bishop of Rome for the good of all God's holy people."

With the upcoming Consistory, according to today's data, the College of Cardinals will enlarge to 256 Cardinals, 141 of whom will be Cardinal electors.

THE NEW LECTIONARY TALK

BY FR PAUL DENNEY

Fr Denney is giving a talk on the new Lectionary on Monday 21st October at 7.00pm in St. James' hall, Kirkshaws. This may be of particular interest for our parish readers and parishioners. Everyone is most welcome to come along. It will be from 7.00pm-8.00pm with teas and coffees available.

The talk will explain what the Lectionary is in general and why it is important, what makes a good translation, and a brief background of the English Standard Version Catholic Edition (ESV-CE) - where it comes from and its style of translation - and also we'll look at some of the changes we will see e.g. layout of the new books for ease of reading, some use of gender inclusive language, and several examples comparing the ESV with the current JB to see some of the riches of the Biblical text which are now much clearer and transparent to the reader. There will also be time for questions.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK / HOSPITAL VISITATIONS

Those who require the Sacrament of the Sick at home should contact the Chapel House to arrange for a visit from Fr. Kane. This should ordinarily be arranged prior to any prolonged hospital visit. In cases of emergency where you or a family member require the pastoral assistance of the Chaplain, please request this from the hospital nursing staff. Please note that even during this time of pandemic individuals have a right to be seen by a Minister of Religion, even if they are in COVID-19 isolation. The family should make this request clearly to nursing staff.

CATHOLIC TEACHER APPROVAL

Those wishing to teach in the Catholic sector are reminded that it is first necessary to obtain approval from your parish priest to show that you accept and live the Catholic faith. For those living within the parish of St. Augustine's this means approval from Fr. Kane. This applies to those about to enrol for the teaching course, those starting out as probationary teachers, and all those applying for new posts (promoted or otherwise) within a Catholic school. Please contact Fr. Kane if you have any questions about this process.
