CHRISTOPHER FURMAGE ORDINATION TO THE PRIESTHOOD ORDINATION DATE

As a Parish, it is a great witness to see one of our own parishioners come forward for Priesthood. We now prepare for the day he is to be ordained to the Priesthood. On Thursday, 3rd July, God willing, Chris will be ordained by Bishop Toal here at St. Augustine's.

It is a great joy to see one of our parishioners become a Priest and I hope as many of you will be able to attend on the day. Timings are still to be confirmed. Chris will offer his First Mass on Friday, 4th July, More details to follow.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

REFLECTION

The First Reading is taken from Acts 14:21-27. Last week we heard of St. Paul's experiences at Antioch in Pisidia during his first missionary journey. Their visit had ended on a sour note as Paul and Barnabas were expelled. The reading ended with "the two shook the dust from their feet in protest and went on to Iconium. Their disciples knew only how to be filled with joy and the Holy Spirit." Today we hear of the conclusion of this first missionary journey where Paul and Barnabas retrace their steps back through Antioch in Pisidia on their way back to Antioch in Syria where they had begun their journey.

The Second Reading is from the Book of Revelation 21:1-5a. For the past three weeks we have had as our second reading an account of John's privileged vision of the heavenly liturgy where he has seen the eternal sacrifice being offered to God the Father by His Son, The New and Eternal High priest and sacrifice. We have heard also the prayers being offered by the faithful. We now go to the end of John's account as he describes the Heavenly Jerusalem. It was Jesus' mission to go to the earthly Jerusalem to offer His sacrifice — this shows us the path that we must follow to reach the Heavenly Jerusalem so that we can dwell with Him there forever.

The Gospel is from John 13:31-33a, 34-35. We are disciples, followers of Christ, but how many of us would pass the test that Christ himself lays down for deciding who are his true followers? The word "charity" unfortunately has come to have a very restricted meaning in our present-day vocabulary. It signifies giving an alms, a gift of money to a needy person. This is but a very small part of the true charity, true love of neighbour which Christ made the distinguishing mark of the true Christian. He who truly loves his neighbour must be interested, first and foremost, in those things which concern that neighbour's most important purpose in life, his eternal salvation.

Here is where so many good Christians fail in true charity. Effective interest in missionary activity is a case in point. Practical help in parochial matters, taking part in the various societies which are intended to build up and strengthen the faith and the devotion of the members of the parish is another obligation of true charity. So many seem to think it is no concern of theirs but it is. Advising and encouraging, with true Christian kindness, a neighbour who is beginning to grow lax in his attendance to his Christian duties, or who is forming habits or alliances which, if unchecked, will bring misery and suffering to his family, and scandal to the neighbourhood, and even the possibility of his own eternal destruction, is also an exercise of real Christian charity.

There are thousands of broken homes today which would not be broken if there was true charity in those homes not only in the heart of the offender but in the hearts of the offended. There are thousands in jails and in hospitals of rehabilitation today who would not be there if their families and neighbours fulfilled their obligation of Christian charity. There are many, far too many, lapsed Catholics in the world today, who would not have lapsed had true charity been practised by their relatives and neighbours. And, last but not least, there are millions of people who have remained outside the Church of Christ because the hallmark of charity which Christ said was its distinguishing mark was tarnished or invisible. Each one of us could, with great profit, spend a few moments today looking into ourselves and comparing our thoughts and our words and our actions with the thoughts, words and actions of love which Christ expects from his followers.

It is never too late to mend. Begin today to take a true Christian interest in the spiritual fate of your family and neighbours. Where words have already failed perhaps, try prayer and example. The grace of God will cooperate with your sincere, charitable effort.

PARISH INFORMATION

PASTORAL CARE OF THE SICK & HOUSEBOUND

If you or a loved one, neighbour or friend would like a home visit from Fr. Kane please complete and return the following form to the Parish House. The office will then be in touch to arrange a suitable time for Fr. Kane to visit, as well as a more long-term arrangement for the housebound person to receive Holy Communion and the Sacrament of the Sick at home. Please use the form printed below. Simply cut out and return completed to the Parish House.

POPE LEO XIV COAT OF ARMS

The Holy See Press Office released the official explanation of Pope Leo XIV's coat of arms on Wednesday.

In the explanation, Fr. Antonio Pompili, Vice President of the Italian Heraldic-Genealogical Institute, highlights its Marian and Augustinian elements. The Pope's coat of arms includes the traditional papal symbols of the crossed keys of St. Peter and episcopal mitre.

The upper left-hand corner of the shield bears a silver fleur-de-lis set against a light blue background. On the bottom right, a red heart topped by a flame and pierced by an arrow sits atop a red book framed by an ivory background.

Pope Leo XIV's motto—IN ILLO UNO UNUM ("In the One, we are one")—sits at the bottom of the coat of arms.

The motto echoes St. Augustine's sermon on Psalm 127, where he explains that "although we Christians are many, in the one Christ we are one."

Fr. Pompili pointed out that the blue field evokes "the heights of the heavens and is distinguished by its Marian significance, with the lily appearing as the classic symbol of the Blessed Virgin Mary."

The opposite field, he noted, contains the heart enflamed and pierced by an arrow, which is the emblem of the Order of St. Augustine, of which Pope Leo XIV served as Prior General for two terms.

"This figure symbolically evokes Saint Augustine's words in the Confessions: 'Sagittaveras tu cor meum caritate tua' ('You pierced my heart with your love')," explained Fr. Pompili.

From the 16th century on, the symbol has appeared in the Augustinian coat of arms. It is typically accompanied by the open book, which symbolizes "the Word of God that transforms every human heart, as it did Augustine's."

"The book also recalls the enlightened works that the Doctor of Grace bestowed upon the Church and humanity," noted Fr. Pompili. "White (in the papal arms rendered in ivory) recurs in many religious orders' heraldry as a sign of holiness and purity."

MOTHERWELL

DEEP DISAPPOINTMENT AS ASSISTED SUICIDE BILL PASSES FIRST HURDLE IN HOLYROOD

The Assisted Dying for Terminally Ill Adults (Scotland) Bill has passed its first test in the Scottish Parliament.

Following several hours of debate in Holyrood, the Bill, which could eventually legalise doctor-assisted suicide in Scotland, passed the first of three parliamentary stages by 70-56 votes.

Bishop John Keenan, President of the Bishops' Conference of Scotland and Bishop of Paisley, said he was "deeply disappointed" that the Parliament had "taken the first step to permit the state to provide vulnerable people with the means to end their lives prematurely."

He did, however, refer to the many MSPs who, during the debate, "expressed significant reservations about the Bill" and said that he hopes and prays that MSPs will "take time to reflect very carefully on these concerns and reject the Bill before it is passed into law."

It is clear from the debate that many MSPs voted in favour of the Bill to give them more time to consider a very difficult and challenging issue, and that support for the Bill at this stage does not necessarily mean MSPs will vote for it in future. That is why it is important to remember that yesterday's vote was not an endorsement of assisted suicide, but a vote to continue the conversation.

The Bill will now proceed to the next stage of parliamentary scrutiny, including consideration of amendments, before a final version is put before the Parliament for a vote. If passed at that stage, the Bill will become law.

The Catholic Parliamentary Office will publish a call to further action in due course.

In the meantime, individuals may wish to take the opportunity to contact their MSPs. The Write to Them online tool makes this really easy.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK / HOSPITAL VISITATIONS

Those who require the Sacrament of the Sick at home should contact the Chapel House to arrange for a visit from Fr. Kane. This should ordinarily be arranged prior to any prolonged hospital visit. In cases of emergency where you or a family member require the pastoral assistance of the Chaplain, please request this from the hospital nursing staff. The family should make this request clearly to nursing staff.

CATHOLIC TEACHER APPROVAL

Those wishing to teach in the Catholic sector are reminded that it is first necessary to obtain approval from your parish priest to show that you accept and live the Catholic faith. For those living within the parish of St. Augustine's this means approval from Fr. Kane. This applies to those about to enrol for the teaching course, those starting out as probationary teachers, and all those applying for new posts (promoted or otherwise) within a Catholic school. Please contact Fr. Kane if you have any questions about this process.
