HOLY MASS FOR THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF

CANON JIM FOLEY

Tuesday, 23rd September at 7.00pm

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

'You cannot serve God and money.'

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

The First Reading is taken from the Prophet Amos 8:4-7. Amos was a shepherd in the kingdom of Judah who was called by God to go to Israel, the northern kingdom. There he was to speak in God's name to the people. This was in the 8th century B.C. The country enjoyed material prosperity, but idolatry and injustice were rife among the upper classes especially. Against these vices the prophet spoke fearlessly until he was eventually driven from the kingdom. Today's reading deals with the injustices practiced against the poor and the helpless.

The Second Reading is from St. Paul's first letter to Timothy 2:1-8. What St. Paul is telling Timothy, the bishop of Ephesus, to teach his congregation is the necessity and the obligation of prayer.

The Gospel is from St. Luke 16:1-13. These words of Christ warning those who would follow him on the road to heaven not to become the slaves of earthly things are applicable to all of us. Most of us may feel that this warning is for millionaires and business magnates. Our Lord didn't say so. There was not a single millionaire in his audience. He meant it for all of us, for what he warned against was not the just acquisition of this world's goods but their unjust acquisition and the dishonest use of them when they were justly acquired.

It was God who created all that exists in this world. He intended these goods for the use of man. We are only managers, therefore, of these worldly goods. It is on our way of managing these goods, not on the quantity we had to manage, that our judgment will be based. Millionaires can get to heaven, while all paupers have no guarantee that they will make it. Our Lord deduces two lessons for us from the parable of the unjust manager or steward. Firstly, the enterprise that he showed in providing for his earthly happiness when he would lose his employment was greater and keener than that shown by most of us in providing for our eternal happiness.

Did I give one hour a day to God and the things of God, helping the needy, learning more about my religion, giving a hand in parochial affairs, advising those in difficulties, spiritual or temporal, and praying for my own and my neighbour's needs? Yet even if I did, it is less than one-tenth of the free time I had at my own disposal.

If I did not, if I barely managed to get in the Sunday Mass and a few hasty prayers, could anyone suggest that I was showing great interest and was very enterprising as far as my future life was concerned? God is very generous with me. He gives me lots of time for providing for my health and temporal needs each week, and a lot of free time besides. I should not express surprise if he is disappointed at how little of that wonderful gift of time I am willing to give back to him. The unjust steward was far more enterprising as regards earthly provision for himself.

The second lesson our Lord wishes to teach us is that we should use what we can spare of our earthly possessions in helping those who are in need of our help. By doing that, we will be making friends who will help us at the judgement seat to get a lasting reception in heaven.

Remember that description of the judgment that our Lord gave when he said, "I was hungry and you gave me to eat; I was naked and you clothed me"? What we do for the needy, we do for Him. Those whom we help, as far as we can, will be witnesses testifying for us when our final examination, on which our eternity will depend, comes upon us.

Two resolutions worthy of your serious consideration today in relation to earthly goods are: Never let them take up all your time. You have a far more serious purpose in life. Give it a little more thought and enterprise than you have been doing. Secondly, be grateful to God for what He has given you in this life. You might like to have a lot more, but God knows best. Work honestly and be generous with what you have. You are serving God, not money. God will be waiting for you where there is no currency, and where the one bank account that matters will be the good use that you made of your time and your share of this world's goods while you were alive.

SCOTLAND

SCIAF MARKS 60 YEARS OF FAITH, SOLIDARITY AND HOPE

On Saturday, the SCIAF family - made up of supporters, staff of past and present, and our incredible volunteers - gathered at St Columbkille's in Rutherglen, the birthplace of this organisation, for a very special Mass to mark SCIAF's 60th anniversary.

Some even took part in a short pilgrimage from St Andrew's Cathedral - through the peaceful paths of Glasgow Green and along the banks of the River Clyde. The walk together in nature and prayer, was a chance to reflect on SCIAF's work and have meaningful conversation.

Six whole decades of serving our sisters and brothers around the world is a feat we're truly proud of.

We know deep down in our hearts that this work would not have been possible without prayers, donations, and action from supporters across Scotland. So, thank you for uniting with us over these many years.

Together, we've stood side-by-side with people suffering injustice, pain and suffering due to climate change, conflict, and political instability.

Since 1965, SCIAF has grown from strength to strength:

- Empowering the hungry to grow more food
- Uplifting women and girls with dignity
- Opening up education for those who are excluded
- Offering hope in the darkest of times

The Mass was celebrated by Bishop Brian McGee, SCIAF's current Bishop President, and concelebrated by past President Bishop Joseph Toal, Parish Priest Father Bernard Mournian and many other Priests who have been associated with the charity over the years.

Thank you to the children and young people from local schools who attended the Mass - St Columbkille's, St Mark's, Holyrood Secondary, Trinity High and Fernhill School. We very much appreciated you coming along, welcoming guests, and singing in the choir. The hymns sung, old and new, added to the uplifting and emotional atmosphere of the Mass.

During his sermon, Bishop Brian McGee spoke expressively of one strong message of the Church that SCIAF staff remember in their work and life each day: we are all brothers and sisters. No matter our circumstances, we should treat others as our closest family.

SCIAF Chief Executive Lorraine Currie said:

"SCIAF, and everyone associated with it believes that a better world is possible - and it's their mission to bring that vision to life.

"From Rutherglen to Rafah, Aberfeldy to Addis Ababa, Benbecula to Bogota, the SCIAF family is there, building a better world. Saturday was truly a joyful day where it was clear that SCIAF has a special place in the hearts of many."

Although the world may seem like a dark place these days, joyful events like this remind us of the hope that our work brings to communities who need it most.

This Mass shone a light on how our community have helped the world's poorest people for many decades, but we know there is much to be done, so please continue to work and pray with us to make the world a more peaceful place.

POPE LEO RECALLS LATE DUCHESS OF KENT'S 'LEGACY OF CHRISTIAN GOODNESS'

In a message to King Charles, Pope Leo XIV has expressed his closeness to the Royal Family for the loss of Britain's Duchess of Kent.

In the telegram sent on Tuesday to Buckingham Palace, the Holy Father said he was saddened to learn of the death of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent.

"I send heartfelt condolences, together with the assurance of my prayerful closeness, to Your Majesty, the members of the Royal Family, and especially to her husband, the Duke of Kent, and their children and grandchildren at this time of sorrow," wrote the Pope.

Pope Leo entrusted the soul of the late Catholic Duchess, whose funeral Mass was held on Tuesday at Westminster Cathedral and was celebrated by Cardinal Vincent Nichols, Archbishop of Westminster.

"Entrusting her noble soul to the mercy of our Heavenly Father," reassured the Pope, "I readily associate myself with all those offering thanksgiving to Almighty God for the Duchess's legacy of Christian goodness, seen in her many years of dedication to official duties, patronage of charities, and devoted care for vulnerable people in society."

"To all who mourn her loss, in the sure hope of the Resurrection," concluded Pope Leo XIV, "I willingly impart my apostolic blessing as a pledge of consolation and peace in the Risen Lord."

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK / HOSPITAL VISITATIONS

Those who require the Sacrament of the Sick at home should contact the Chapel House to arrange for a visit from Fr. Kane. This should ordinarily be arranged prior to any prolonged hospital visit. In cases of emergency where you or a family member require the pastoral assistance of the Chaplain, please request this from the hospital nursing staff. The family should make this request clearly to nursing staff.

CATHOLIC TEACHER APPROVAL

Those wishing to teach in the Catholic sector are reminded that it is first necessary to obtain approval from your parish priest to show that you accept and live the Catholic faith. For those living within the parish of St. Augustine's this means approval from Fr. Kane. This applies to those about to enrol for the teaching course, those starting out as probationary teachers, and all those applying for new posts (promoted or otherwise) within a Catholic school. Please contact Fr. Kane if you have any questions about this process.
