TWENTY SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

'You received good things, and Lazarus bad things; now he is comforted here, and you are in anguish.'

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

The First Reading is taken from the Book of Sirach 3:17-18, 20:28-29. In today's reading we have a few more of the words of wisdom on humility from this saintly man who spent his life meditating on the law of God revealed to the Chosen People.

The Second Reading is from St Paul to the Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24, in which he contrasts two scenes. One is the giving of the Old Covenant, and the other is the assembly of those justified by the New Covenant. The reason why the Church has selected these verses is the same reason that St Paul had when he wrote them. He wanted to impress on the Jewish converts the superiority of the Christian religion over that of the Old Testament, which they had practised until their conversion.

The Gospel is from St Luke 14:1, 7-14, in which Jesus had been invited to dine in the house of a leading Pharisee. The Pharisees were so convinced of their own perfect knowledge and observance of the law that they thought nobody else could possibly know it or observe it as perfectly as they did. In a very simple parable, Jesus told them where their pride would lead them.

A proud Christian, that is, a proud follower of the humble Christ, is a contradiction in terms. Christ, the Son of God, lowered himself to our level when He took our human nature. He was born in a stable, reared in the obscure village of Nazareth, earned his meager meals as a country carpenter, died on a cross as a malefactor with two thieves as companions, and was buried in a God's banquet. Thank God, there are few whose pride leads them to these extremes, but there are far too many who set themselves up as judges over their neighbor and appoint themselves as the models to be imitated by all others.

There is a little demon of pride in each one of us. There is a natural inclination in each one to esteem ourselves a little better in most ways, if not in all, than our neighbour.

We must keep this demon in check and not let him grow in us. Any gifts of mind or body that we have are from God—our duty is to use them properly and to thank God for the loan of them. If He gave greater gifts to another, I thank God for it. That other was able to make better use of them than I would. I have enough gifts to go on. I shall not be judged on the use or abuse of gifts which I did not receive.

If I use all the gifts which God gave me to help my neighbour, the spiritually poor, the lame and blind, to heaven, instead of keeping myself aloof from them as the Pharisees did, then my judgement will be easy. I shall be "repaid in the resurrection of the just."

The proud Christian sets himself up as a critic of God's wisdom. He muses: God forgives sinners too easily. God doesn't know them as well as I do. That conversion cannot be trusted; it will not last, he says. The "sinners" prosper; they are blessed with good health, a happy family, more than their share of the world's goods, and here am I, who never failed God, who always did what was right and even more, and I am neglected by God. God doesn't know his real friends!

These are the questionings of a proud soul. Such Christians raise themselves above their neighbors in their own minds. They choose the first places, and from their self-appointed heights, they look down on their fellow guests at the stranger's grave. Could He have done more to induce us to listen to his counsel when He said, "Learn of me, for I am humble of heart"?

Yet, there are Christians who are proud. Like the Pharisees of old, they thank God that they are not like the rest of men. They shun any contact with sinners. They cover their ears when any scandal is mentioned. Yet they never miss the gossip and are always ready to condemn offhand the unfortunate giver of scandal, without knowing the extenuating circumstances.

—Excerpted from The Sunday Readings Cycle C, Fr. Kevin O'Sullivan, O.F.M.

SCOTLAND

SCIAF MARKS 60 YEARS OF FAITH, SOLIDARITY AND HOPE

On Saturday, the SCIAF family - made up of supporters, staff of past and present, and our incredible volunteers - gathered at St Columbkille's in Rutherglen, the birthplace of this organisation, for a very special Mass to mark SCIAF's 60th anniversary.

Some even took part in a short pilgrimage from St Andrew's Cathedral – through the peaceful paths of Glasgow Green and along the banks of the River Clyde. The walk together in nature and prayer, was a chance to reflect on SCIAF's work and have meaningful conversation.

Six whole decades of serving our sisters and brothers around the world is a feat we're truly proud of.

We know deep down in our hearts that this work would not have been possible without prayers, donations, and action from supporters across Scotland. So, thank you for uniting with us over these many years.

Together, we've stood side-by-side with people suffering injustice, pain and suffering due to climate change, conflict, and political instability.

Since 1965, SCIAF has grown from strength to strength:

- Empowering the hungry to grow more food
- Uplifting women and girls with dignity
- Opening up education for those who are excluded
- Offering hope in the darkest of times

The Mass was celebrated by Bishop Brian McGee, SCIAF's current Bishop President, and concelebrated by past President Bishop Joseph Toal, Parish Priest Father Bernard Mournian and many other Priests who have been associated with the charity over the years.

Thank you to the children and young people from local schools who attended the Mass - St Columbkille's, St Mark's, Holyrood Secondary, Trinity High and Fernhill School. We very much appreciated you coming along, welcoming guests, and singing in the choir. The hymns sung, old and new, added to the uplifting and emotional atmosphere of the Mass.

During his sermon, Bishop Brian McGee spoke expressively of one strong message of the Church that SCIAF staff remember in their work and life each day: we are all brothers and sisters. No matter our circumstances, we should treat others as our closest family.

SCIAF Chief Executive Lorraine Currie said:

"SCIAF, and everyone associated with it believes that a better world is possible – and it's their mission to bring that vision to life.

"From Rutherglen to Rafah, Aberfeldy to Addis Ababa, Benbecula to Bogota, the SCIAF family is there, building a better world. Saturday was truly a joyful day where it was clear that SCIAF has a special place in the hearts of many."

Although the world may seem like a dark place these days, joyful events like this remind us of the hope that our work brings to communities who need it most.

This Mass shone a light on how our community have helped the world's poorest people for many decades, but we know there is much to be done, so please continue to work and pray with us to make the world a more peaceful place.

POPE LEO URGES CATHOLICS TO PRAY DAILY ROSARY FOR PEACE IN OCTOBER

Catholics across the globe will unite to pray the Rosary for peace in war-torn lands, especially during the month of October, which the Church dedicates to the Holy Rosary.

Pope Leo XIV made the announcement at the Wednesday General Audience.

He said the faithful in Rome will gather in St. Peter's Square on October, 11, 2025 at 6:00 PM.

"I invite everyone, each day of the coming month, to pray the Rosary for peace—personally, in the family, and in community," he said.

The Pope also invited Vatican employees to pray the Rosary daily in St. Peter's Basilica at 7:00 PM throughout October.

In his greetings to Portuguese pilgrims, Pope Leo lamented the "ruins wrought by murderous hatred."

The Rosary for Peace will be held during the Jubilee of Marian Spirituality, which takes place on October 11-12.

That day also marks the 63rd anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council, which Pope St. John XXIII opened on October 11, 1962.

The original image of Our Lady of Fatima will be in St. Peter's Square for the Rosary prayer and the Jubilee of Marian Spirituality.

The evening format is as follows:

7.00pm Holy Rosary

7.30pm Holy Mass

Followed by Adoration

Refreshments afterwards in the Parish Centre.

SUNDAY COLLECTION

The Parish collection for the last weekend is as follows:

- Plate collection: £1,950
- Gift Aid: £1,475
- Tax Reclaimed: £363
- Total: £3,788

*Through Gift Aid we can claim back 25p from every £1 paid of taxpayer donations.

POPE LEO'S PRAYER INTENTION FOR OCTOBER

For collaboration between different religious traditions

Let us pray that believers in different religious traditions might work together to defend and promote peace, justice, and human fraternity.

PEACE HOUR OF PRAYER

Every day throughout the week we will dedicate the hours of 2pm-3pm to pray for peace in our world. Come along at this time and pray before the Blessed Sacrament to pray for peace in our world, seeking God's guidance and healing for those affected by conflict and division. All are welcome.

PARISH NOTICES

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

Our parish RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) programme will be starting up soon. This is the journey the Church offers to adults who are preparing to become Catholic.

Starts 6th November at 7.00pm in the Chapel House

If you, or someone you know, is interested, please speak to one of the clergy or contact us at staugustine@rcdom.org.uk.

HCPT Group 49 Prize Bingo

A fun-filled evening of bingo will take place in aid of HCPT Group 49 and the Xaverian Missionaries on Friday 10th October 2025 at 7.00pm in St Augustine's Hall, Coatbridge. Entry costs just £2.50, with plenty of chances to win. All are welcome, and proceeds will support two very worthy causes.

Handmade Rosaries

We are delighted to welcome Joanna back to our parish with her beautiful hand-made rosary beads and devotional items. Joanna will be with us after all weekend Masses on Saturday, 27th and Sunday, 28th September, and also at the Medjugorje Mass on Monday, 29th September.

This is a wonderful opportunity to purchase a rosary or a gift for family and friends, while also supporting Joanna's work. Please take a moment to visit her stall and browse the items on offer.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK / HOSPITAL VISITATIONS

Those who require the Sacrament of the Sick at home should contact the Chapel House to arrange for a visit from Fr. Kane. This should ordinarily be arranged prior to any prolonged hospital visit. In cases of emergency where you or a family member require the pastoral assistance of the Chaplain, please request this from the hospital nursing staff. The family should make this request clearly to nursing staff.

CATHOLIC TEACHER APPROVAL

Those wishing to teach in the Catholic sector are reminded that it is first necessary to obtain approval from your parish priest to show that you accept and live the Catholic faith. For those living within the parish of St. Augustine's this means approval from Fr. Kane. This applies to those about to enrol for the teaching course, those starting out as probationary teachers, and all those applying for new posts (promoted or otherwise) within a Catholic school. Please contact Fr. Kane if you have any questions about this process.
