BIRTHDAY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY
MONDAY, 8TH SEPTEMBER

TWENTY THIRD WEEK OF ORDINARY TIME

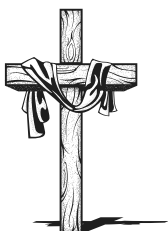

'Any one who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple.'

TWENTY THIRD SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME REFLECTION

The First Reading is taken from the Book of Wisdom 9:13-18a. In today's extract the author is stressing man's incapability of understanding the divine plans and decrees. Because we are finite, limited beings, our knowledge is finite and limited. There are many limited, finite problems all around us, which we cannot solve. How could we hope to solve the infinite ones?

The Second Reading is from St. Paul to Philemon 9b-10, 12-17. This letter is the shortest of St. Paul's letters and at the same time the most personal and touching. During his first imprisonment in Rome (61-63), a slave called Onesimus, who had run away from his Christian master Philemon, a native of Colossae, came to Paul in Rome and was converted to Christianity. Paul sent him back to his master bearing this letter, in which Paul touchingly appeals to Philemon to deal kindly with the runaway.

The Gospel is from St. Luke 14:25-33 and teaches us that the essential condition for true discipleship, demanded by Christ, was, and still is, total dedication, total commitment of oneself to Him. There can be no such person as a half-Christian. "He that is not with me is against me," He said on another occasion. We cannot be for Christ on Sunday and against Him for the remainder of the week. To be His true disciples, His true followers, we must live our Christian life every day and all day.

Following Christ means making our way to heaven. It is a life-journey. We have a limited time in which to complete this journey. Therefore, we must travel a certain distance each day. This does not mean that we must spend every day in prayer and meditation. There are other tasks to be done, but we must Christianise these other tasks. Even the members of religious orders who "leave the world," that is, who are set free from the family and financial cares of this world by their vows of chastity and poverty, have to busy themselves with other cares like teaching, nursing, tilling the soil perhaps, house-keeping, writing and many such activities. They cannot and do not spend all their day and every day in prayer and meditation. Nor does Christ demand this of them.

Much less, therefore, does He demand this of the ninety-nine percent of His followers who have to take on themselves financial and family cares. It is by fulfilling these worldly duties in a Christian way that they are dedicating themselves to His service. This is their total commitment to Christ. The married man or woman who is loyal to his or her life-partner and to the family, if there is one, and who provides diligently and honestly for his own and the family's spiritual and temporal welfare, and who always does this with the intention of pleasing God, is following Christ and is moving steadily day by day towards heaven.

JOY AS ANOTHER MAN ORDAINED FOR MOTHERWELL

On Wednesday, 3rd September, the Diocese of Motherwell was blessed with a moment of great joy as Christopher Igwe was ordained to the sacred priesthood. Surrounded by his family, friends, and brother priests, Fr Christopher gave his life in service to the Lord and His Church, committing himself to a lifetime of prayer, sacrament, and ministry. The ordination was a powerful reminder of the Lord's goodness to His people, and a cause of deep thanksgiving for the whole diocesan community.

It is always a profound grace when another man is ordained within our diocese. Each vocation is a sign of God's providence and a call to us all to renew our prayers and support for those discerning their path in life. The priesthood and religious life remain vital to the life of the Church, and the ordination of Fr Christopher is both a joy to celebrate and an encouragement for us to continue praying that many more will respond with generosity to the Lord's invitation.

As we look ahead, Scotland prepares to mark Vocations Week, beginning on 14th September. At the heart of this week will be the Vocations Mass, celebrated on Tuesday, 16th September at 7.00 p.m. in Motherwell Cathedral. This Mass will provide us with the opportunity to come together in thanksgiving for the gift of vocations already given, to pray for Fr Christopher as he begins his priestly ministry, and to ask the Lord to continue to raise up new priests and religious for the service of His Church.

We invite all the faithful to join us in prayer and presence at the Vocations Mass, and to continue to pray earnestly for vocations to the priesthood and religious life in our diocese. May the example of Fr Christopher's commitment inspire others to hear and respond to the Lord's call with courage and faith.

POPE ASKS AUGUSTINIANS TO PROMOTE UNITY THROUGHOUT THE CHURCH AND THE WORLD

Pope Leo XIV began his homily for the Mass for the Inauguration of the General Chapter of the Augustinians by inviting those present to ask the Holy Spirit for His guidance in their work.

"The Holy Spirit speaks, today as in the past," the Pope said, emphasizing the importance "for the atmosphere of the Chapter, in harmony with the centuries-long tradition of the Church, to be an atmosphere of listening" to God and to others.

He invited those taking part in the Chapter to "live these days, therefore, in a sincere effort to communicate and to understand" as a "generous response to the great and unique gift of light and grace that the Father of Heaven gives you by summoning you here, you specifically, for the good of all."

Pope Leo went on to emphasize the importance of humility, citing St Augustine, who saw in the multiplicity of voices "an invitation to us to make ourselves small in the face of the freedom and inscrutability of God's action."

Instead of imagining that they have "all the answers," he invited them "to welcome with faith that which the Lord inspires" in order to allow themselves to be taught and reminded by the Spirit of the words of Christ.

Finally, the Holy Father emphasized a final "point of reflection" from the opening liturgy: "the value of unity." He took up St Paul's words from the first reading, reminding those present that all have received gifts "inspired by the Spirit" for the good of all.

Before highlighting this aspect of his message, the Pope chose to speak English for those present "who understand English but don't understand Italian," inviting everyone to pray for a gift of the Holy Spirit.

"That you will be given indeed, not necessarily the gift to understand or speak all languages, but the gift to listen, and the gift to be humble, and the gift to promote unity -within the Order and through the Order, throughout the Church and the world," he said.

"Let unity be an indispensable goal of your efforts," he continued in Italian, "but not only that: may it also be the criterion for evaluating your actions and your work together, because what unites is from Him, but what divides cannot be."

Concluding his homily, Pope Leo said the liturgy to open their deliberations invites them to make listening, humility, and unity "their own, renewing the prayer we raised to the Lord at the beginning of the celebration: May the Paraclete, who proceeds from you, O Father, illuminate our minds and, according to the promise of your Son, guide us to all truth."

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK / HOSPITAL VISITATIONS

Those who require the Sacrament of the Sick at home should contact the Chapel House to arrange for a visit from Fr. Kane. This should ordinarily be arranged prior to any prolonged hospital visit. In cases of emergency where you or a family member require the pastoral assistance of the Chaplain, please request this from the hospital nursing staff. The family should make this request clearly to nursing staff.

CATHOLIC TEACHER APPROVAL

Those wishing to teach in the Catholic sector are reminded that it is first necessary to obtain approval from your parish priest to show that you accept and live the Catholic faith. For those living within the parish of St. Augustine's this means approval from Fr. Kane. This applies to those about to enrol for the teaching course, those starting out as probationary teachers, and all those applying for new posts (promoted or otherwise) within a Catholic school. Please contact Fr. Kane if you have any questions about this process.
