ELEVENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

'Jesus called to him his twelve disciples and sent them out.'

YOUR WEEKLY

READING REFLECTIONS

The First Reading is taken from the Book of Exodus 19:2-6a. This reading is a preliminary to the Sinai covenant, where Israel is dearer to Yahweh than any other nation; Israel is to become a kingdom of priests, a holy nation. They needed to grow in holiness and to become a mission-orientated group rather than remain a self-contained body. Israel was specially chosen and enjoyed God's favour, but that election was not to mean isolation and self-satisfaction. —A Celebrants Guide to the New Sacramentary—A Cycle by Kevin W. Irwin

The Second Reading is from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans 5:6-11. In this reading St. Paul argues from the fact that if God was so good to us as to let his Son die for us while we were yet sinners, we can have the greatest confidence that he will also bring us to heaven (provided we keep our part of the contract) when our earthly life ends, because as followers of Christ we are now adopted sons. —The Sunday Readings by Fr. Kevin O'Sullivan, O.F.M.

The Gospel is from St. Matthew 9:36, 10:8. "Jesus had compassion for them." Who were the "crowds" on whom he had compassion? Among them were tax-collectors who cheated, robbers who robbed, murderers who murdered, harlots who lived lives of unchastity, adulterers who violated their marriage vows, and nominal believers in God who never went to the temple or honoured God in private.

These may have been a minority, but there was no town or district in Palestine of that time in which some, or all such sinners, could not be found. Yet Jesus, who read their innermost minds, had pity on them, for he saw that most, if not all, of these sinners acted through ignorance and through lack of instruction. They were lost sheep because they had no shepherd to lead them. The exalted opinion of their own sanctity that their official teachers had caused them to shun the people, lest they be contaminated.

Christ said the harvest of such poor, misguided souls was plentiful and he needed more harvesters. That, indeed, was true in his day, but it is a hundred percent truer today. Any of our modern larger cities today have a population greater than the whole of Palestine in Christ's day. And the percentage of sinners in these cities would be greater, not less, than the percentage of sinners then in Palestine.

Christ too is unchanged. He still has compassion for today's sinners and wants them to be saved, not lost. But for this he needs "harvesters", apostles, who will help him. Here is where all good Christians, all who really love God and their neighbour, must help. He is not asking us to give up our present occupation or to leave home and family to become priests or missionaries. The work we can do and which he is asking us to do is on our very doorsteps. In some cases it is inside—in our own homes.

The first movement towards this apostolate to our fellow men is to show the good example of a truly Christian life. In the home and in our place of employment, an example may go unnoticed or sometimes even be ridiculed by the very ones who need it, but with the grace of God, which always accompanies it, it will eventually produce good fruit. There are thousands of men and women in heaven today who owe their salvation, under God, to the good example of a sincere Christian neighbour. After a good example comes good advice. A suggestion, a hint, or encouragement, kindly and charitably offered, may often turn a neighbour from evil ways. This good advice must always be humbly and charitably given. Nobody, a sinner least of all, wants to be lectured or "preached at." St Francis de Sales, the gentlest of apostles, said that one will catch more flies with a spoonful of honey than with a barrel of vinegar. There are pious Christians who abhor sin so much that they abhor and repel the sinner, as well. In this, they are more pharisaical than Christlike. He abhorred sin, but he still loved the sinner and wanted him saved.

The harvest is plentiful; indeed, it is huge. But let not its huge size frighten us. If everyone reaps his own corner, we shall all meet in the centre of the harvest field some day.

—Excerpted from The Sunday Readings, Year A by Fr Kevin O'Sullivan, O.F.M.

Summer Bulletin

From the weekend of 4th/5th July, the parish bulletin will move to a simplified summer format. During this period, the bulletin will include the weekly timetable and any Mass intentions that have been received.

For information about parish events, activities, and other announcements, please check the parish noticeboards, where updates will continue to be displayed throughout the summer.

We thank you for your continued support and participation in parish life. Whether you are staying at home or travelling during the holiday period, we wish you and your loved ones a happy, restful, and blessed summer.

Make Saint Augustine's Bloom

Following last autumn's successful appeal for bulbs, which resulted in a proud show of daffodils and tulips around the Crucifixion Statues, this year, we are requesting your help, again, for the following:

1. Summer flowering plants.
2. Garden tools such as trowels, rakes and brushes.
3. Help to keep the grounds clean and the gardens blooming.

Donations can be left in the Church porch and if you write the name of anyone you wish remembered on a piece of paper this will be buried when the plants are put in the ground.

If you can help in any way, even for an hour, then please contact Bob on 07729913537.

Silver Jubilee of Fr Kenneth O'Brien

The Parishes of St Joseph's and St Barbara's warmly invite you to join them for a special Mass of Thanksgiving celebrating the Silver Jubilee of Priestly Ordination of Fr Kenneth O'Brien.

Fr Kenneth, former Assistant Priest of St Augustine's, has faithfully served the Church for 25 years.

Day for Life - Sunday, 21 June 2026

Sunday, 21 June, is Day for Life in the Church in Scotland. This year's theme is 'The Wonder of the Child in the Womb' and reflects on the humanity of the unborn child and acknowledges, with compassion, the deep grief experienced by parents who lose a child before or shortly after birth. You will find the Bishops' Letter along with other materials here: www.bcos.org.uk/dayforlife.

There will be a second collection towards the Bishops Conference Day for Life Fund <http://www.bcos.org.uk/Day-for-Life-Fund> which offers grants for pro-life initiatives and other initiatives that allow people to live life to the full.

MISSION FILE

GOSPEL

MATTHEW 9:36-10:8

At that time: When Jesus saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.'

And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every affliction. The names of the twelve Apostles are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them, 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And proclaim as you go, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is at hand." Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay.'

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK / HOSPITAL VISITATIONS

Those who require the Sacrament of the Sick at home should contact the Chapel House to arrange for a visit from Fr. Kane. This should ordinarily be arranged prior to any prolonged hospital visit. In cases of emergency where you or a family member require the pastoral assistance of the Chaplain, please request this from the hospital nursing staff. The family should make this request clearly to nursing staff.

CATHOLIC TEACHER APPROVAL

Those wishing to teach in the Catholic sector are reminded that it is first necessary to obtain approval from your parish priest to show that you accept and live the Catholic faith. For those living within the parish of St. Augustine's this means approval from Fr. Kane. This applies to those about to enrol for the teaching course, those starting out as probationary teachers, and all those applying for new posts (promoted or otherwise) within a Catholic school. Please contact Fr. Kane if you have any questions about this process.

300 CLUB

PARISH 300 CLUB

The Parish 300 Club is one of the ways we raise vital funds to help with the upkeep of our church buildings and grounds.

It's £5 per week, and every month there are five cash prizes, including a first prize of £700.

The difference is already beginning to show, and these improvements are only possible because of the continued support of parishioners through initiatives like the 300 Club.

If you are not already a member, we warmly invite you to consider joining. Your support really does make a difference to the ongoing care and maintenance of the parish.
